World History

Assignment 3, Between the World Wars

1. Identify the emperor of Japan from 1926 to 1989.

2. In Japan, explain who extreme nationalists were and what they believed.

3. Identify this Northern Chinese province that was attractive to the Japanese.

4. What made Manchuria attractive to the Japanese?
   a. It had a large Japanese population
   b. It was close to China.
   c. It was rich in natural resources
   d. It had a nationalist government.

5. During the 1920s, Japan became
   a. more prosperous but less democratic.
   b. less prosperous but more democratic.
   c. more prosperous and more democratic.
   d. more imperialistic and more industrialized.

6. The Kellogg-Briand Pact was designed to
   a. end wars between countries.
   b. strengthen the Maginot Line.
   c. create the borders between France and Germany.
   d. improve the global economy.

7. This person was the Italian fascist party leader.

8. This is a form of government in which a one-party dictatorship rules.

9. This word identifies any centralized authoritarian, nationalistic government that is not communist and whose policies glorify the state over the individual and are destructive to basic human rights.

10. These are state-owned farms in Stalin’s Soviet Union (Russia).

11. These are a system of brutal labor camps that existed in Stalin’s Soviet Union.

12. This was an artistic style that showed the Soviet Union in a positive light.

13. This is an economic system in which government makes all decisions.

14. Hitler believed his German government, or the _____ _____, would rule Europe for a thousand years.

15. The 1935 _____ _____ revoked Jew’s German citizenship.